

DAFFODILS HIGH PUBLIC SCHOOL

NEWSLETTER SEPTEMBER & OCTOBER 2023

Janmashtami

Janmashtami, Lord Krishna's birth day, is a day of great devotion and adoration for his devotees. A school observed the occasion by dressing up as Krishnas and Radhas and learning about his principles of humility, kindness, and fearlessness.

Students from pre-primary and higher classes were involved in the celebration of Janmashtami. The students, dressed in orange, were set to celebrate Lord Krishna's birth anniversary with zeal. While dancing to musical beats, the students got wet in the rain and appreciated the beauty of nature. They imbibed in the positive energy and created memories with their classmates.

Hindi Diwas

Every year on September 14, people celebrate Hindi Diwas as a way to honour the Hindi language and preserve Indian culture. The Constitution of September 14, 1949, established Hindi as India's official language.

The students celebrated hindi diwas by writing essays, reciting poems and competing in Smruti Khel Pratiyogita, Bhashan Pratiyogita, etc.

Poetry Recitation Competition

A poetry reading is an oral presentation of poetry in front of an audience. The first and second graders, exceptionally gifted and creative, recited their poems in a beautiful and flowing way, thereby lightening the 14th of September in a melodious way.

Students were judged on the parameters like confidence, voice modulation, memorization and overall presentation.

The young poets enthralled the audience with their pronunciation and memory skills while reciting poems. It was a splendid opportunity for them to gain confidence through stage exposure. Everyone was delighted after seeing their pleasing performances.

The judges appreciated and applauded the performances of the participants and the feeling of patriotism filled the air with affection and respect for the motherland.

Elocution Competition

The study of formal speaking, including its pronunciation, grammar, style, and tone, as well as the theory and practise of successful speech and its forms, is known as elocution. It is based on the notion that although speech is symbolic, music is definitive and persuasive. The 5 to 9 grade pupils presented their elocution speeches with flair.

The students delivered their elocution speech with joy and expressed their thoughts, opinions and creativity on their respective topics. The students were given topics like: My Dream Job; Indian Sports and Games; What makes learning fun?; Social media a bane or boon? and so on.

STORY TELLING SESSION BY FAMOUS AUTHOR KATIE BAGLI

‘Storytelling is the most powerful way to put ideas into the world today.’ -Robert McKee.

Children have an innate love for stories. Stories create magic and a sense of wonder at the world. So we at Daffodils had invited a famous author Katie Bagli for the story telling session. She narrated a chapter from the book called 'Sangla'.

Children dove into the mystical world of the book ,as Katie Bagli uncovers the magic mystery,and adventures within her book and helped them to enhance their Imaginative Skills. She made learning more Fun, Easy and Practical and helped them to reflect their own self and others in the society. She not only gave them a chance to Tap onto their creative side but also inculcated Values like Honesty, Kindness, Compassion Etc

Navratri

Navratri, meaning "nine nights," is a Hindu festival dedicated to the goddess Durga and her various forms. These nine nights are a symbolic journey representing the triumph of good over evil. Join us in unraveling the spiritual significance and cultural diversity associated with Navratri. Students from pre-primary and higher classes were involved in savouring every moment with the fusion of music and folk dance of Gujrat i.e. Garba. They celebrated Navratri by dressing up in colorful traditional attire and dancing to the beats of music. The energy and enthusiasm of the students were contagious, as they swayed and twirled to the rhythm of the music. The school premises were decorated with flower garlands and lights, adding to the festive vibe of the occasion. This celebration helped to foster cultural awareness and appreciation, promoting a sense of unity and harmony among the students.

JUNIOR CHEF

Young minds from grade 1 to 6 put their extra-ordinary cooking skills to prepare stupendous dishes. The junior chef programme was enjoyable for the youngsters as they learned how to make desserts including cupcakes and quick lunches. Following the preparation of the meal, they shared it to their classmates. Tasting the snacks made by their own skilful hands was an avalanche of awesome for them.

Student's Day

World Students' Day is observed in India on October 15 every year to honor the contributions of former president A . P. J Abdul Kalam towards the field of education. The occasion coincides with the late teacher's birth anniversary. It was also celebrated as bagless day in the school. The students were asked to bring story books and were given time to read. They also enjoyed a movie and were engaged in games. The seniors not only volunteered the students but also got the them involved in fun games and entertained them.

